Third Annual “Mandarin in Schools” Teacher Conference

Saturday, October 26, 2013

7:30 AM Check In
8:00 AM – 2:00 PM Conference & Workshops

LAUSD Superintendent Dr. John E. Deasy, Special Guest

International Studies Learning Center
5225 Tweedy Blvd., South Gate, CA 90280

“Empowering Teachers to Bring Chinese Language and Culture to Life in the American Classroom”

Teachers will explore strategies for integrating literacy, technology, and the arts into the study of language and culture, and will learn how to implement California’s new Common Core Standards in the K-12 Mandarin classroom. Practitioners and leaders in the field of Mandarin instruction will share insights and experiences in the growing arena of immersion and world language studies.

Complimentary continental breakfast and lunch. Register by Oct. 21.
Questions: Clara Chiu cchiu@advancingjustice-la.org, or call (213) 241-0235

Hosted by the Mandarin in the Schools Committee/Committee of 100

No cost registration—Click here